

Ann O'Hara Graff Memorial Award 2023 Nomination Form

Please answer one or all of the questions below to help the steering committee for the Women's Consultation on Constructive Theology determine next year's honoree.

Prior Honorees are listed below. Please consult this list so that you consider nominating women who have not already been recipients of the Ann O'Hara Graff Memorial Award.

1. Please identify several Catholic women in the field who have served as formative mentors for you and other scholars, past and present.

2. Which Catholic women in the field have authored the texts that shaped your formation as a scholar, the texts you teach in your classes, or the texts you engage in your scholarship?

3. Which Catholic women in the field do you admire for their service to the guild in professional societies, editorial boards, support of junior scholars and underrepresented scholars, or service to the Church?

4. If someone you nominate is selected as the AOG honoree, would you be willing to speak on her behalf? Yes/No. Your name_____.

1997 Joan Timmerman

1999 Regina Coll

2000 Diana Hayes

2001 Susan Ross

2002 Mary Ann Hinsdale

2003 Monika Hellwig

2004 Ellen Leonard

2005 Gaile Pohlhaus

2006 María Pilar Aquino

2007 Anne Carr

2008 Barbara Hilkert Andolsen

2009 Anne Patrick

2010 Jamie Phelps

2011 Joann Wolski Conn

2012 M. Catherine Hilkert

2013 Mary C. Boys

2014 M. Shawn Copeland

2015 Patricia Beattie Jung

2016 Elizabeth Johnson

2017 Margaret Farley

2018 Nancy Pineda Madrid

2019 Mary Rose D'Angelo

2021 Susan Abraham

2022 Francine Cardman

Return to Julia Feder or email to AOGAward@gmail.com