TOPIC SESSION/CONSULTATION: Theological Anthropology

ADMINISTRATIVE TEAM:

LaReine-Marie Mosely, SND (Notre Dame of Maryland University) (Convener)
Heather DuBois (Florida State University)
Elizabeth Pyne (Fordham University)

CONVENTION THEME: “All You Who Labor…”: Theology, Work, and Economy

SESSION DESCRIPTION:

The Theological Anthropology Session invites proposals for papers that address a variety of themes that relate to the types of work that promote or hinder human flourishing, including but not limited to: the manner oppressed peoples have faced the weight of inhumane and/or backbreaking work; problematic work practices of companies and boycotting to prompt meaningful changes that respect workers; the efforts of sex workers to seek dignity and a living wage; the widening wage gap between persons who are rich and those who are poor; gender complementarity and its influence on work-related human flourishing; human beings as “co-creators” with God; achieving work and play/leisure balance through observing the Sabbath or other means; and work and creativity.

Our session welcomes individual papers or panel submissions.

INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN YOUR PROPOSAL:

• Your paper proposal should be not more than 250 words.
• You should also include a 100 words précis that will be posted on the CTSA website should your paper be accepted.
• Please provide the name and institution of all participants (convener, moderator, presenters), and contact information, including e-mail.
• Indicate whether you will be requiring A/V equipment.

ELIGIBILITY FOR SUBMITTING PAPER PROPOSALS
• CTSA guidelines require that those making proposals ordinarily be associate or full members in good standing with their dues paid up. Anyone with an associate or full membership application on file can also submit a proposal if they expect to be accepted for membership in the upcoming June convention.

• No member may present a paper/respond to a paper/participate on a panel more than once at a given convention. An exception is made for members of under-represented groups. Presentations made to the Women’s Consultation on Constructive Theology are included in this rubric.

• Members cannot have a speaking role for more than two consecutive years in a three-year period.

Deadline: September 1, 2019. Please submit proposals to: lmosely@ndm.edu

You will be notified by e-mail whether your paper has been accepted by September 14, 2019.
