TOPIC SESSION/CONSULTATION: Thomas Aquinas Consultation

ADMINISTRATIVE TEAM:
William C. Mattison III (Convener)
Fr. Dominic Langevin, O.P.
Daria Spezzano

CONVENTION THEME: “All You Who Labor…”: Theology, Work, and Economy

SESSION DESCRIPTION:
Thomas Aquinas presents a comprehensive vision of human salvation within the divine economy; in this context, human work, wealth, poverty, and other economic questions take on a moral dimension. The Thomas Aquinas Consultation calls for papers on any aspect of Aquinas’s theology relevant to questions of divine or human economy, or the relationship between them. Papers might focus on the divine economy itself broadly speaking (e.g., soteriology, grace) or consider how Aquinas’s theological perspective may offer insights into the moral dimension of human labor and economy.

INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN YOUR PROPOSAL:
• Your paper proposal should be not more than 250 words.
• You should also include a 100 words précis that will be posted on the CTSA website should your paper be accepted.
• Please provide the name and institution of all participants (convener, moderator, presenters), and contact information, including e-mail.
• Indicate whether you will be requiring A/V equipment.

ELIGIBILITY FOR SUBMITTING PAPER PROPOSALS
• CTSA guidelines require that those making proposals ordinarily be associate or full members in good standing with their dues paid up. Anyone with an associate or full membership application on file can also submit a proposal if they expect to be accepted for membership in the upcoming June convention.

- No member may present a paper/respond to a paper/participate on a panel more than once at a given convention. An exception is made for members of under-represented groups. Presentations made to the Women’s Consultation on Constructive Theology are included in this rubric.

- Members cannot have a speaking role for more than two consecutive years in a three-year period.

Deadline: September 1, 2019. Please submit proposals to: wmattiso@nd.edu

You will be notified by e-mail whether your paper has been accepted by September 14, 2019.
