June 11-14, 2020

TOPIC SESSION/CONSULTATION: CHURCH AND ECUMENISM

ADMINISTRATIVE TEAM:
Colleen Mary Mallon, OP (Convener)
Jakob Rinderknecht
Natalie Imperatori Lee

CONVENTION THEME: “All You Who Labor…”: Theology, Work, and Economy

SESSION DESCRIPTION:
The Church Ecumenism Topic Session wishes to focus our June 2020 conversation on the ecclesial dialogue that continues within and among the Churches on the relationship between doctrine and the work of the Gospel. Recalling that the Life and Work movement emerged (1925) as an alternative response to the work of Christian unity fostered by the Faith and Order movement (1910), the questions of right relationship between doctrine/polity and the practical applications of Christian life among separated churches in a globalized, pluri-religious world remain fertile for a new generation of theologians. We invite papers that will consider, especially in the light of these early ecumenical movements, new/emerging understandings (of)/approaches (to) the dynamism between social activism and “right teaching” as expressive of a faith that is ever ancient and ever new.
