TOPIC SESSION/CONSULTATION: Historical Theology

ADMINISTRATIVE TEAM:

Andrew Salzmann, Benedictine College, Atchison, KS (Convener)
Clifton Stringer, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA
Kenneth Parker, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA

CONVENTION THEME: “All You Who Labor…”:
Theology, Work, and Economy

SESSION DESCRIPTION:

The Historical Theology topic session welcomes papers on topics related to the annual conference theme, or indeed on any topic relating to historical theology. In particular, we welcome papers which discuss...

- The historical accounts Catholic thought on labor, money, markets, and the economy in any period (early church, medieval, Enlightenment…)
- The salvation economy (oikonomia), both in itself and in relationship with the consumer economy.

Additionally, the fact that the 2020 conference is being held in Cleveland presents the opportunity to engage the thought of senior academics from that area. Therefore, we are also open to proposals which...

- Consider the importance and influence of immigration and the diverse ethnic makeup of American Catholicism on American theology, a major concern of Cleveland academic John Grabowski;
- Engage the significance of Kant on Christian thought, a major concern of Cleveland academic Chin-Tai Kim.

INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN YOUR PROPOSAL:

- Your paper proposal should be not more than 250 words.
- You should also include a 100 words précis that will be posted on the CTSA website should your paper be accepted.
- Please provide the name and institution of all participants (convener, moderator, presenters), and contact information, including e-mail.
• Indicate whether you will be requiring A/V equipment.

ELIGIBILITY FOR SUBMITTING PAPER PROPOSALS

• CTSA guidelines require that those making proposals ordinarily be associate or full members in good standing with their dues paid up. Anyone with an associate or full membership application on file can also submit a proposal if they expect to be accepted for membership in the upcoming June convention.

• No member may present a paper/respond to a paper/participate on a panel more than once at a given convention. An exception is made for members of under-represented groups. Presentations made to the Women’s Consultation on Constructive Theology are included in this rubric.

• Members cannot have a speaking role for more than two consecutive years in a three-year period.

Deadline: September 1, 2019. Please submit proposals to Andrew Salzmann (asalzmann@benedictine.edu).

You will be notified by e-mail whether your paper has been accepted by September 14, 2019.
