

CALL FOR PAPERS

Society for Christian Scholarship in Music
Annual Meeting
February 6-8, 2020
Baylor University, Waco, Texas

The Society for Christian Scholarship in Music seeks proposals for its upcoming annual meeting, which will take place February 6-8, 2020 at Baylor University in Waco, Texas.

Individual papers, research posters, panels, and lecture recitals on any topic related to music and the study of Christianity are welcome. We invite submissions representing a variety of approaches and perspectives, including history, ethnomusicology, theory and analysis, philosophy and theology, liturgy, congregational music, and critical theory. In light of the Beethoven birthday year 2020, the Society also encourages proposals related to music and disability.

Guidelines for proposals:

- Individual Paper Proposals should clearly describe the argument, evidence, and research findings, situate the work in relation to previous scholarship, and articulate how the research contributes to Christian scholarship in music. The identity of the author should not be divulged in the body of the proposal. Maximum length: 350 words. Only one individual proposal may be submitted. Individual papers are 25 minutes.
- Research Poster Proposals should follow the same format as Individual Paper Proposals above. The program will include a designated time to discuss research posters. Please clearly indicate if you would like your proposal to be considered: (1) as a paper, (2) as a research poster, or (3) either paper or research poster.
- Panel Proposals should include a summary of the importance of the panel topic by the panel organizer (maximum length 350 words). The organizer should also include a proposal for each paper prepared by individual panelists following the guidelines for Individual Proposals, along with each panelist's contact information. Panel Proposals will be considered only as a whole, the session's coherence being an essential part of the evaluation process. A panel is 1 hour and 45 minutes, including time for questions.
- Lecture-Recital Proposals should identify the music to be performed, including performing forces, and clearly describe the substance of the lecture component as outlined for Individual Proposals. Please note clearly at the top that this is a Lecture-Recital proposal. Maximum length: 350 words. Lecture recitals are one hour.

The Society for Christian Scholarship in Music promotes the exploration of connections between Christian faith and the academic study of music. We are a cross-disciplinary society including ethnomusicologists, music theorists, musicologists, scholars of liturgy and of church music, theologians, and practicing church musicians. The Society understands itself as having an ecumenical Christian identity, reflecting the worldwide diversity of Christian traditions. The Society also sees it as vitally important to learn from scholars outside those traditions, and scholars who do not identify as Christian are welcome to join as full members.

SCSM encourages submissions from current graduate students. A $250 prize will be awarded for the best paper presented by a graduate student at the 2020 meeting. Application instructions for the graduate student prize will be provided upon acceptance of the paper for the program and will be posted on the society's website.

Please send submissions or questions to program chair Joshua Waggener at scsm2020baylor@gmail.com. In the body of your submission e-mail, please identify your affiliation, preferred e-mail for communication, and if you are a student. Please submit your proposal as a Word file. Proposals must be received no later than 11:59 p.m. on October 1, 2019 in order to be considered. All proposals are evaluated the program committee in a blind peer review process. Applicants will be notified of the program committee's decision by early November.

Presenters are required to become members of the society for the year of the conference. Conference registration is open to all interested persons: undergraduate and graduate students, as well as independent and affiliated scholars.
