

Stan Chu Ilo is a Research Professor of World Christianity and African studies at the Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology, DePaul University, Chicago. He is an honorary Professor of Religion and Theology at the Durham University, Durham, England and the 2017 winner of the Afro-Global Excellence Award for Global Leadership. He is the President of the Canadian Samaritans for Africa, and a member of the Board of Director of Concilium International where he also serves as the co-editor of Concilium Online Catholic International Journal. Some of his most recent books are: Church and Development in Africa (2014); A Poor and Merciful Church (2018); Wealth, Health, and Hope in African Christian Religion; (2019), and Someone Beautiful to God: Finding the light of Faith in a Wounded World (2020). He co-edited the three-volume work, Faith in Action in Africa and is the author of the forthcoming book, Discourse on Theology, Church and Society in Africa vol I: Where is God in Africa? And My Daily Walk with Jesus: Through the Year with God.