

Anne Carpenter

Anne Carpenter is Associate Professor in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at St. Mary's College of California. Her work focuses on the intersection between the symbolic worlds of art, especially poetry, and the rigors of philosophy, especially Thomistic metaphysics. Her other areas of interest include the nature and purpose of Catholic tradition and the relationship between language and meaning.